From Your Pastor and Teacher

A poem to take with you on your summer travels or tape to your fridge. Take this wisdom from Walter Brueggemann and may it guide us all away from privilege and into the arms of our God.

Ourselves at the Center – by Walter Brueggemann

We are your people,
mostly privileged, competent, entitled.
Your people who make futures for ourselves,
seize opportunities,
get the job done
and move on.
In our self-confidence, we expect little beyond our productivity;
we wait little for that which lies beyond us,
and then settle with ourselves
at the center.

And you, you in the midst of our privilege,
our competence,
our entitlement.

You utter large, deep oaths beyond our imagined futures.
You say – fear not, for I am with you.
You say – nothing shall separate us.
You say – something of new heaven and new earth.
You say – you are mine; I have called you by name.
You say – my faithfulness will show concretely and will abide.

And we find our privilege eroded by your purpose,
our competence shaken by your future,
our entitlement unsettled by your other children.

Give us grace to hear your promises.
Give us freedom to trust your promises.
Give us patience to wait and humility to yield our dreamed future to your large purpose.

We pray in the name of Jesus,
who is your deep yes in our lives.

See you in church, T. Michael

Worship at Robbinsdale United Church of Christ

Exploring ministry is one of the things we do on Sunday morning. Church is the place we come to for healing and for the chance to be inspired about the shape and substance of our ministry in the world. When you invite your friends and neighbors to church, I urge you not to come as a consumer, but as a fellow explorer and participant in the community.

June 1st – Communion Sunday – Honoring Graduates

Sacrament of Baptism for Gabriel Francis Hoppe Knutson

Scripture Reading: Romans 3:21-32

Sermon: “Faith Is . . .” Rev. T. Michael Rock

This Sunday kicks off our summer season of exploring our own deeply rich tapestry of faith. We will be learning and growing together through exploring how our faith makes life real in the world. Come and discover new ways to grow and discover your faith over and over again.

June 8th -Minnesota Conference Annual Meeting

Scripture Reading: Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

Sermon: “No Small Miracle” – Guest Preacher: Beckie Bernu

What a gift to have our own In-Care person in our pulpit on this Sunday morning. When some are in St. Cloud attending to the business of the Minnesota Conference, most of us will be here and blessed by Beckie’s passion and faith.

June 15th –RUCC Retreat

Scripture Readings: Genesis 18:1-15 and 21:1-7, Romans 5:1-5

Sermon: “Promises, Promises”–Guest Preacher: Marc Blakesley

Marc is a former staff member, friend of Robbinsdale United Church of Christ and a member of Spirit of the Lakes United Church of Christ in Minneapolis. To the wider UCC, he is an “Open and Affirming” process consultant on behalf of the Minnesota Conference. Marc is a writer of liturgy and hymn texts, a singer and story-teller, a preacher and visualist. After several years of working primarily in the area of youth ministry, Marc has followed his calling and has taken the creative style of worship, usually reserved for camp and retreat settings, and seeks ways to incorporate it into the intergenerational Sunday worship setting. With an emphasis on liturgy truly being the work of the people, Marc works with pastors and laity to creatively empower all people in the worship experience through movement and responses, music and visuals. He also serves on the administrative staff of the Saint Paul Area Council of Churches.

June 22nd

Scripture Readings: Romans 6:1b-11 and Matthew 10:24-39

Sermon: "The Cost of Discipleship"— Rev. T. Michael Rock

Being a Christian is sometimes very difficult. We are sometimes asked to make hard choices and even to share sometimes beyond our comfort zone. It can also be scary to live in the vulnerability to which we have been called. This Sunday we will examine the risk and reward of our faithful calling as people in this Gospel movement.

June 29th

Scripture Reading: Matthew 6:25-34 and Luke 10:38-42

Sermon: "The Golden Rim or What's on My Plate"—Guest Preacher: Cheryl Nordquist

Our own writer, bass player, witness for Global Missions, pageant director, MS bike rider, Supermom, fix-it person, and member of our community will be in the pulpit this Sunday bringing her creativity and faith to all our lives.

Staying Connected During the Summer

Please let the church office know if you have a different phone or mailing address for the summer. We would love to stay in touch and keep you connected to what is happening in your church home. We will also be installing a bulletin board in the main hallway for the specific purpose of hanging church bulletins from places our church member visit when they are away. As you may be attending your "lake church" or other faith community in your travels, pick up a bulletin and send it into the church.

Summer Spiritual Practice Opportunity

During Lent, a group of us took on the practice of fasting one day of the week in order to remain prayerful and mindful in our lives. I would like to offer that practice as a wonderful way to stay connected to this faith community during your summer travels. All you need to do is send T. Michael your e-mail and/or phone and you'll get a weekly note of encouragement for this practice. We'll nourish our spirits together through this ancient spiritual practice of fasting. If you would like to know more or want to join the fun, contact Rev. T. Michael Rock at tmichael@robbinsdaleucc.org

GIFT ANNUITY INFORMATION

Today's financial decisions are becoming more and more complex. While the interest rate you can earn on your money goes down and stock prices fluctuate (too often in a downward trend), the cost of gasoline and food skyrockets. For those of us on a fixed income and/or dependent upon the earnings on our investments, the outlook can seem bleak. There is, however, some good news on the horizon. A gift annuity may be an attractive option for you if you wish to increase your yield and leave a gift to the Endowment at Robbinsdale United Church of Christ upon your death.

Here's an example. At age 70, if you act BEFORE July 1, 2008, you'll receive a yield of 6.50% on your investment. If you wait until AFTER July 1, your yield will drop to 6.10%. At age 80, the yield drops from 8% to 7.60%.

In addition to a high rate of return on your money, a gift annuity allows you to take a significant charitable tax deduction in the year you purchase the annuity. Also a portion of each quarterly payment to you could be tax exempt. Upon your death, any remaining funds would go to the RUCC Endowment or any other beneficiary of your choice.

If you are interested in investigating this opportunity, don't delay! Talk with Rev. T. Michael Rock or any member of the Endowment Committee.

Congratulations to RUCC Love Bike Team

On May 10th, seven of us from RUCC participated in the MS Ride. It was a beautiful morning and we got the chance to connect with each other as well as taking in a wonderful ride and raising over $500 for the cure of this horrible disease. You may still contribute to our ride by visiting www.mssociety.org, clicking on the pledge button, and looking up our team at RUCC Love. Please join the fight and support the ride.

Coordinating Council

May 20, 2008

*Opportunity Next Door Phase 2 had first meeting. Julie Manworren signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Plymouth Church Neighborhood Foundation. We have $4000 pledged to this effort and $3800 paid.

*Endowment requests were reviewed and discussed. (See article below.)

ENDOWMENT FUND AWARDS

As you may know, the Coordinating Council at Robbinsdale United Church of Christ is charged with the task of spending some of the interest of the endowment in four distinct categories. This enables us to do extra ministry outside the limits of our church budget. Here is the story of hope for these funds for ministry.

Community Outreach

1. Leisure Age – A wonderful program for retired folks that takes place every Thursday at Elim Lutheran Church. We partner with 11 other congregations to make this happen.

2. Vacation Church School – What a great way to expand our ministry and provide great summer program for our kids and our community. With this grant we'll provide wonderful experience and keep the costs at a minimum.

Threads of Hope – One of our growing missions is providing handmade quilts of love for those in need of warmth.

Wider Church

1. The National Setting of the United Church of Christ will receive a substantial gift of our endowment to assist with their disaster relief ministries around our country and around the world
Fair Trade Coffee Commitment – On the heels of the vote to make Robbinsdale United Church of Christ a fair trade coffee church, this grant will kick start our commitment and make sure we are connecting with local coffee growers from around the world.

Capital Projects:

1. Trustees Ministry will receive a grant to place in our capital campaign ongoing in order to address the ever expanding list of capital improvements here at RUCC.

2. Community Outreach will receive a gift in order to conduct an extensive energy audit of our building in hopes of being good stewards of our budget and our environment.

Scholarship:

This fund will be used to help members of the church grow in their faith, explore their call to ministry and assist with our connection to United Seminary. If you are interested in attending an event or class at UTS, there are funds available. Please talk with T. Michael.

What a blessing it is to provide so much extra ministry and live out of our abundance. Keep the ideas coming and we'll do some wonderful things next year, too.

A Wonderful Response...

NEW PEW BIBLES ORDERED

The Worship Ministry thanks all those who donated money in the name of loved ones for the purchase of new pew Bibles.

$2590 was donated for the purchase of 192 regular size red pew Bibles and 18 large print black Bibles. The size of the large print Bibles is such that they would be very difficult to remove from the pew racks, so they will be kept in the narthex to be picked up by those who wish to use them.

Our office administrator Gretchen Roesler will be working this summer on the dedication labels.

Come to the September Great Fall Get-Together for the dedication of our new Bibles.

Create in me a clean heart,
O God. Psalm 51:10

Happy Birthday!
Greetings and best wishes to all members and friends of Robbinsdale United Church of Christ who celebrate their birthdays in June.

Reaching Out: The Power of One

When Clare was younger, she accompanied me to work one Saturday morning. As we exited the freeway, there was a man standing at the top of the off-ramp. Clare saw him and asked why he was standing there and what his sign said. I explained that sometimes people who don't have a job and/or a home would hold up a sign asking people who were driving by to help. She asked why we didn't stop.

I am sure it is a dilemma that we have all struggled with: Do we have money in our purses or wallets to share? Will it be used for drugs or alcohol? Is it our right to judge?

Clare kept raising the issue in the days and weeks to come. Coincidentally, there was an article in the newspaper in which several people who stood at highway off-ramps were interviewed. Their stories of how they came to be there were fascinating, and it struck me that there but for the grace of God go many of us. I was most impressed with the words of one man, who said that it was okay not to give him any money, but please don't look away as if he was not there.

As a consequence of Clare's ongoing interest and the newspaper article, we decided to make "Homeless Kits." We started with gallon zipper bags and into each one we put a bottle of water, a new pair of athletic socks, a granola bar, a small box of raisins, a toothbrush and toothpaste, travel size deodorant, lotion, shampoo, and hand sanitizer. Then Clare got out her "sharing" bank (she has to divide any money she earns or receives into 3 banks – savings, sharing, and spending) and put $2 into each gallon bag. We then put the kits in the car.

Our first opportunity to hand out a Homeless Kit came a couple of weeks later. We were going home from visiting a friend in south Minneapolis and I deliberately chose a route that would take us past an area where I had previously seen people holding signs asking for help. And sure enough, there was a man at the corner. He had tan, weathered skin and snow white hair, mustache, and beard. With Clare watching, I opened the window and as he came near, I handed him a bag. He got a big smile on his face and said, "I don't even know your names." I told him who we were and he told us his name was Bimbo. He then said "God Bless You," and we drove away with big smiles all around. It was a very positive first interaction and Clare was thrilled.

In the last several years, we have since given out many Homeless Kits, all of which have been received gracefully. We make one addition to the kit in the winter – a polar fleece scarf.

We have shared this story with our friends, and consequently, Sheri Beck now carries a box of granola bars in her car, Julie Manworren and her staff at Simpson Housing created a program they call "Clare's Inspiration" in which they make and distribute Homeless Kits, and one of my colleagues makes Homeless Kits with her young daughter.

It goes to show that one person can make a difference in this world. We believe that if just one person is helped by our Homeless Kits, then the effort is worthwhile. We understand that not everyone is willing or able to make Homeless Kits. And that is okay. We simply would say that when you see a person holding a sign asking for help, please don't look away.- Nancy and Clare Bossert

CABARET SUCCESS!!

They played to a packed house! Cabaret Night Goes 60s was basically sold out—we had reservations for 135 people and with the servers and helpers we fed closer to 145. We dined on classic favorites—Lipton Onion Dip, green beans almondine, and our entrees were followed up by the Pillsbury Bake-Off classic from the 60s, Tunnel of Fudge Cake, and a Berry Pavlova.

The music was fabulous and the variety was awesome. We did rock-and-roll to the classic peace march song "We Shall Overcome."

Thank you to a lot of people for making this all happen. They are too numerous to name, but I have to single out a few who went to extremes. Of course, thanks to David and Steve for the music arrangements and the program. Thanks to Patty Miller for doing the set up and recruiting people to help. Thanks to Paul Amundson for putting together the "graduates" mystery booklet. Thanks to the Miller and Gausman families for spending their Saturday morning tie-dyeing t-shirts and tablecloths. Thanks to Willa Truehart for her kitchen expertise. And finally, I must thank my mother, Susie Klatke, for being my sounding board and creative editor. All my ideas first pass through her for approval, and she always tosses in a few of her own. We raised just short of $1000 to go toward the new dishwasher after all expenses were taken out. Praise the Lord and thank you to everyone who made this all possible--Kathy Jo Gausman

Note from Dwight Wagenius

Gentlefolk:

My internship and ministry with you is ended. I have begun my reflection on what I have learned and on the many blessings you showered on me. It's a long reflection, aided by a daily review of another red heart, if you know what I mean.

As T. Michael has told you, you are indeed a teaching community. You welcomed me in, you challenged me, you nurtured me, you critiqued me (gently), you fed me very well, you suggested things I might consider, and you gave me permission to be myself, thus helping me in my quest to lead an authentic life.

But, you are disobedient. I suggested strongly that you send me away with a rousing chorus of "Hit the Road, Jack." That would have made leaving easier, possibly. But you didn't do that. No, you gave me your hearts; you showered me with blessings and love; and you "stoled" me with a work of art. [The proof reader sitting on my left shoulder says that the last sentence should be either "bestoled me with a work of art" or "bestowed on me a stole that is a work of art"—you be the judge, eh?] Words fail me in saying how honored I feel. From my heart, where I lovingly hold you all, I thank you.

May your paths be filled with God's grace.

Peace,

Dwight

RUCC to Host Islam Discussions

June 12 and June 26

On Thursday, June 12, at 7:00 p.m., Robbinsdale United Church of Christ will host the presentation "Islam- Myth and Reality." Arafat El-Bakri is a popular speaker on the topic of Islam at universities, churches, public schools and community groups throughout the Twin Cities area. Mr. El-Bakri founded the Islamic Relief and Social Services organization, an outgrowth of his work on the Bosnia Relief Committee.

On Thursday, June 26, at 7:00 p.m., we will host "Meet Your Muslim Neighbors: A Dialogue." The program will feature a panel of Muslim residents. What are the greatest challenges to Muslims in the workplace, schools and neighborhoods? Have things changed since 9/11? What do Muslims and non-Muslims tend to misunderstand the most about each other? On this evening there will be an opportunity to dialogue with people of varied ages and backgrounds who practice the Muslim faith and reside in Crystal, Brooklyn Park, Coon Rapids and other suburban areas. This program offers an opportunity to gain knowledge and understanding of our neighbors in our communities, their lives and beliefs.

Both presentations are sponsored by the Northwest Neighbors for Peace and the National and Global Ministry at RUCC. Both are free and open to the public. For more information, contact Gloria at gipeck@yahoo.com or Carole at 763-546-5368.

Thanks from Threads of Hope Quilt Outreach

What an enjoyable and productive year we've had together creating over 30 quilts for Home Free Shelter and the Lakota Re-Member project in South Dakota. Many hands have worked at home and at church to create these gifts: quilt tops were designed and sewn by Nancy Bossert, Tracey Fluegel, Deb Murray, Zella Fluegel-Murray, Linda Smith, Louiva Puffer, Corinne Myers, Kathy Herrmann, Lissi Weiss and Dawn Conn. Carol Welton used her special gifts to bind and finish the quilts. Others who helped with cutting and tying: Cathy Salinger, Dorie Miner, Peggy Spielman, Jeanette Rost, Pam Conner, Sherry Braun, Kira Braun, Lois Bossert, Linda Ward, Sheryl Fisher, Joanie Young Lisa Lindesmith, Angie Schultz, Barbara Wills, Cheryl Nordquist, Christina Gilbert, Sherri Beck, Ken Beck, Jonah Beck, Morgan Rock and T. Michael Rock. Forgiveness if we've left anyone out!!

Vacation Church School at Robbinsdale United Church of Christ

August 25-29, 2008

8:30 a.m. to Noon

Theme: "Kids and Conflict—Solving Problems the Jesus Way"

All children from pre-k through 5th grade are invited to join us this year for this exciting week of Vacation Church School. The cost is low, $15 for a child, $25 for a family for the whole week, and the fun will be huge. We'll sing, paint, play, eat, and learn about God's amazing creation within us and around us. Adults are invited to help. Kids are invited to bring their friends. Registrations begin right now. Look in the church office for the registration forms.

Amy Conner Is Rose Rees Peace Award Recipient

Amy Conner was presented with the Rose Rees Peace Award at a luncheon on April 30, 2008. The Rose Rees Peace Awards have been given annually since 1935 and are named in honor of Rose Rees, who died that same year while serving as President of the Minneapolis Section of the National Council of Jewish Women. Rees's passion for international peace and cooperation was a guiding principle for her at NCJW, at the World Affairs

Council of Minneapolis where she was a founder, and are the basis for the award presented in her honor.

The Minneapolis Section of NCJW acknowledges one graduating senior from each participating high school in the Greater Minneapolis area who shares Rees's special interest and commitment to international relations and world peace. Amy, a student at Robbinsdale Armstrong High School, was nominated by her teacher Matt Quinn, and along with students from 18 other schools, was recognized at the luncheon by teachers, school administrators, family and friends.

Congratulations, Amy!

Wanted: Summer Special Music Participants to enhance the summer services. Hopefully, there are some musical offerings out among you RUCC folks. The music needn't be fancy or  complicated. You may have a book in your piano bench filled with some choice pieces that haven't been heard for awhile...maybe when your family gathered to sing around the piano.

Young artists' contemporary music could work as well. Instrumental music, either solo or ensemble, would be welcome. Poetry or interpretive dance would offer an alternate medium. Sisters could make swell duet music. Hint, hint.

Call David 952-938-0045 or dnordli@comcast.net
Or Steve 763-537-0819

We would be happy to assist you in selecting music.

Thank you to all the children and adults who have enriched our worship services by bringing items in "The Box." Thanks also to all those who have volunteered to lead the discussions about those items and what they mean for our relationship with God. You are all a gift to us all.

Keeping in Touch with Our Young Adults

Thank you to all who contributed to the boxes of goodies we mailed to young adults (18 – 22 year olds). We sent the boxes to 12 young adults.

Position Available

"Sunshine Person" needed to send cards to those on the special concerns list and shut-ins, letting them know we are thinking about them. Cards and stamps provided by Hospitality Ministry. Please contact Mary Gifford if interested.
